We have compiled a list of resources which could enrich your journey and enhance your ministry as you travel through the Lectionary with Mark.

Feasting on the Word – David L. Bartlett & Barbara Brown Taylor (ed)
(BV4235.L43 BAR FW-B)

Feasting on the Gospels: Mark – Cynthia A. Jarvis & E. Elizabeth Johnson (ed)
(BV4235.L43 JAR FG-B)

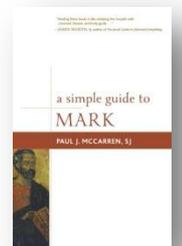

These books examines the Lectionary readings for each week (and the Gospel of Mark in its entirety) from four different perspectives; theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical. A great resource for preachers.

Feasting on the Word series is available for each year of the lectionary as well as Worship Companion (liturgy) and Daily Feast (meditations) for Years A, B & C

A Simple Guide to Mark – Paul J. McCarren (BS2585.53 MCC SM)

This book provides a new translation of the Gospel, leading readers chapter by chapter through the text. Each section includes the scripture reading and a brief, engaging commentary about how readers can relate to the material. The Simple Guides introduce readers to life in early Christianity, describe points of controversy, and show how each section fits with those that went before.

Simple Guides are also available for the Gospels of Matthew, Luke and John.

Mark (Navigating the Gospels) – Philip Fogarty (BS2585.53 FOG MN)

This series offers insights into the Gospels for the general reader. The reader is invited to take an imaginative journey, looking at the people, places and actions of the various actors in the Gospel stories, identifying with them in the hope of better understanding the Gospel's message.

Navigating the Gospels are also available for the other Gospels.

Exploring Mark's Gospel – Leslie J. Francis & Peter Atkins (BS2585.52 FRA EM)

This series explores the Gospel readings from the lectionary in a manner suitable for different personality types. Each weekly reading is looked at in four different ways – sensing, intuition, feeling, thinking. This is a helpful method of studying the Gospel in a way that allows readers to view the message from a variety of different perspectives.

Exploring Matthew's Gospel and Exploring Luke's Gospel are also available.

The Way Opened Up by Jesus: A Commentary on the Gospel of Mark

– José A. Pagola (On order)

This book travels through the Gospel starting at the beginning and travelling through highlighting key passages and providing five meditations on each passage. Ideal for a daily Bible study.

Following in the Footsteps of Jesus: Meditations on the Gospels for Year B

– José A. Pagola (BS2585.54 PAG FF)

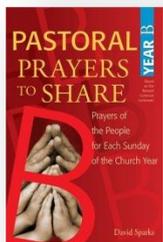

This book offers a guide for reading the weekly Gospel readings and provides a brief homily for meditation every week for the Liturgical Cycle B. This is a great resource for personal meditation on the lectionary Gospel reading either in preparation for Sunday or as a follow up reflection.

Mark for Everyone – Tom Wright (BS2585.53 WRI ME)

This commentary is a great way to develop a more in depth understanding of the Gospel. Written “for everyone”, it explores the Gospel in an approachable style.

This series also covers the rest of the New Testament and a series covering the Old Testament is also available.

Pastoral Prayers to Share (Year B) – David Sparks (BV245 SPA PP-B)

Prayers to Share (Year B) – David Sparks (BV245 SPA PS-B)

Based on the scripture readings from the Lectionary these books offer an entire year's worth of responsive prayers for use in worship and other church group settings.

This series is also available for years A & C.

Reading Mark for the First Time – Wilfred J. Harrington (BS2585.52 HAR RM)

This book provides a “road map” through the Gospel by describing its structure and explains Mark's focus on Jesus the Messiah and the importance of a theology of the cross in understanding this Gospel. Written for a general audience, this is an indispensable guide to the shortest Gospel.
